I have studied with a Certified Iyengar Yoga Teacher (CIYT) for a minimum of three years. Teacher's name(s), length of time, frequency of study (e.g. 2x / week), and contact information:

I am comfortable in Intermediate level Iyengar Yoga classes. I know the Sanskrit names of the poses, how to enter and exit safely with appropriate breathing, and how to use props as needed. I can keep up with the pace of class and remember specific instructions given. Comments:

I am stable in a 5-minute Sirsasana, and a 10-minute Sarvangasana with variations. I can independently kick up at the wall into Adho Mukha Vrksasana. I can push up into Urdhva Dhanurasana. If I cannot uphold these standards, I can show intelligent alternatives for my particular condition. Comments:

I have other Iyengar yoga experience. Briefly describe (study at RIMYI in Pune, Iyengar yoga teacher trainings, conventions, intensives, workshops, teaching experience):

I have other yoga experience. Briefly describe, include which system studied, teachers' names, length of time of study, teacher trainings, teaching experience:

Open House

I understand that in addition to meeting the faculty at an IYISF Open House and learning more about the program, I will participate in a led-practice of Introductory asana (IYNAUS Introductory I and II syllabi) during which my practice will be observed for understanding of Sanskrit names of the asana, accuracy of form and alignment, actions and breath, and the use of props, if needed, as appropriate for me. I understand that my participation in the led-practice is part of the application process, and that my acceptance, program prerequisites, or start date, may be affected. The date I will attend is (check one):

Friday, September 9th, 2016, 6 - 7:30 p.m.

Sunday, October 2nd, 2016, 6:30 - 8 p.m.

Friday, November 4th, 2016, 6 - 7:30 p.m.

Program Commitments

I am committed to completing all 9 sessions of the Art of Teaching program. I understand the sessions are progressive and my attendance is essential to fulfill program responsibilities and commitments.

I will maintain my Iyengar Yoga Association of Northern California (IYANC) membership.

I understand that during the program I am to continue my study with a CIYT in a class at my level (Intermediate or higher). I will also attend a Beginners public class for the purpose of learning as a student, then an observer and finally an assistant. I understand the costs of attending these classes as a student are not included in the program tuition.

I understand that though the Art of Teaching program is an IYNAUS (Iyengar Yoga National Association of the United States) approved teacher training program, upon completion of all 9 sessions of the program, I will not be awarded a certificate or degree, nor will I be able to identify myself as an Iyengar Yoga teacher. I understand that IYNAUS is the organization that carries out Iyengar Yoga teacher certification in the U.S. and I can learn more about certification at www.IYNAUS.org/teach.

I am willing to volunteer and act as an example for other students, particularly at IYISF and / or regional events.

I understand IYISF reserves the right to refuse service to any participant behaving in a way that is harmful or has ill-effect on others.

I understand that upon acceptance into the program, full tuition of $2500 for the 2017 program year is due on or before December 15th, 2016. Upon acceptance into the program, a $250 non-refundable deposit will reserve your space. A full refund less the $250 deposit will be given upon withdrawal from the program prior to December 15th. After December 15th, no refunds will be given. If you are unable to pay the full amount by December 15th, 2016, contact IYISF to discuss paying in installments.
